

Sharing Kimono Culture Workshop

SHARING KIMONO CULTURE PROJECT (SKCP) WITH THE WORLD

 HAWAII TOKAI
INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE

We, Sharing Kimono Culture Project (SKCP), have been holding workshops at schools and universities all over the world since 2009. SKCP and Hawaii Tokai International College, HTIC, hold "Sharing Kimono Culture Workshop". Join us for this special event at HTIC. This event features a presentation about the history and cultural significance of the Yukata (Summer Kimono), followed by a chance to try a Yukata on! There will be 50 different yukatas available to try. Please wear comfortable clothing to change in and out of all our students and staff welcome for this free event.

When: Saturday 9/24 3:00PM

Where: Hawaii Tokai International College Auditorium
91-971 Farrington Hwy. Kapolei
Exit 3 on H1 and drive toward UH West Oahu
Call 938-4100 for direction

Admission: Free

Poster : made by Mizuki Kawamura

科研費
KAKENHI